 1917 COLE 8
 By Appointment:
A. POMBO ("Bumps")
 Wailuku, Maui.

The College of Hawaii is assisting men of the United States Army and other branches of the Service to prepare themselves for higher rank.
 The College gives standard courses in Mathematics, Languages, Chemistry, Physics, Biological Sciences, Civil and Mechanical Engineering, and many other subjects.
 The next College Year begins SEPTEMBER 10.
 For information address the College President, Arthur L.
 Dean, or phone 2946.
 The College is situated in Manoa, five minutes east of the car-line. Visitors are cordially invited to inspect the buildings and grounds.

BABBITT'S CREDENTIALS GOOD, SAY OFFICIALS

Use of a letter of identification signed by Governor Pinkham, in lieu of a passport signed by Secretary of State Lansing, such as W. H. Babbitt, Philippine labor representative of the Hawaiian Sugar Planters, takes with him to enable him to stop off in Japan on his way to Manila, is not unusual, declare customs officials.
 "For several months Americans have been going to the Far East with similar credentials to those carried by Mr. Babbitt," the customs men as-

RED CROSS UNIT IS ORGANIZED AT HAWAII COLLEGE

Yesterday was registration day for the tenth year of the College of Hawaii. The freshman class, comprising 27 members, is the largest class in the history of the college and is divided among the following courses: General science, 8; civil engineering, 2; mechanical engineering, 3; sugar technology, agricultural branch, 7; sugar technology, engineering branch, 1, and agriculture, 4. This figure makes the total number of regular students at the college in the neighborhood of 60, but several of last year's students have not yet reached Honolulu from other islands.

The number of this year's special students is practically equal to the regular students, there being 35 registered for the first time yesterday, and 20 who returned from last year.
 There are also two graduate students, one of whom is Donald Nicholson, who received the first sugar technology degree. He is one of the chemists of the Honolulu Plantation at Ala, but will remain at the college during the first semester.

An affair of great moment to the college and the territory was the organization under Mrs. A. L. Andrews of a Red Cross unit among the women students of the college. During the first day about 40 women volunteered their services.

The faculty for the coming year will have five new members. Professor Crawford, in place of Dr. Illingworth, the entomologist; Dr. Zeldin, in place of Professor Donaghy, of the mathematics department; Mr. Wentzel, in place of Leslie Clark, of the animal husbandry department; Miss Elizabeth Matthews, in place of Miss Florence Lee, of the domestic science department, and Mrs. Grace Bryan, the librarian. The remainder of the faculty is: Dr. Dean, president and professor of Chemistry; Dr. Andrews, secretary and professor of English; Professors Young and Keller, of the engineering department; Professor Dillingham, chemistry; Professor MacCaughy, botany; Professor Crawford, entomology and zoology; Professor Walker, sugar technology; Mr.
 Rock, botanist; Dr. Romberg, physics; Professor Henke, agriculture; Miss Chipman, ceramics and design; Miss Heuer, modern languages; Miss Yoder, history and economics; Mr. Mc-Taggart, instructor in shop work, and Miss Mildred Cowdrey, chemistry.

JAILED FOR SELLING LIQUOR TO SOLDIER

Charged in an information with having sold liquor to an enlisted man in uniform, C. J. Smith pleaded guilty in federal court yesterday afternoon and was sentenced to serve 20 days in Oahu prison. He has already been in prison about 90 days, being unable to secure sureties on a bond of $1000.

"We visae anything which will set the place of a passport," they said.
 So far as the customs men know there has been no difficulty experienced by American travelers in Japan, if they had proper papers of identification.

LOCAL BRITISH BOYS DO 'BIT'

Long Period Between Steamers Responsible; Shortage to Be Relieved Tomorrow

A majority of the local boys of British descent, who sailed from here on the Makura some weeks ago to enlist in the Canadian army for service in France, have joined various branches of the aviation service and are now in the Toronto school, according to word received locally by the last mail.

At the time of writing the balance of the party had enlisted with the Strathcona horse, a cavalry battalion and the others had not yet chosen any particular form of service.
 H. Bryant, Alan Marshall and E.
 Slaughter are studying aviation at Toronto for pilot's certificates, while C.
 Kempster, Melvin King, H. McDougall and William B. Greig are at the same school as mechanics. G. B. Marshall is a pay officer in the Royal flying corps and G. Lubetson, S. Hiles and E. S. Brown are with the Strathcona horse.

'BLIND PIG' IS UNCOVERED; ONE MAN ARRESTED

Concealed in a printing shop back of the Kilohana saloon on Maunakea streets, a "blind pig" was found Saturday night by Officers Ross and Medeiros. Ah Him, a Chinese, was arrested and held for the illicit sale of liquor.

The Chinese was caught in the act of actually selling some booze which he had concealed in a keg, but as the police arrived he threw the dollar he had received over the fence.

A sailor climbed the fence and recovered the money, which served as the necessary evidence of the man's guilt.
 A member of the provost guard, Private Tourbeville, Company L, 32nd Infantry, it is alleged, was caught in the act of drinking booze in back of the Anchor saloon on Saturday night.

The booze was purchased by a Hawaiian who was seen taking it to the soldier. The proprietor of the saloon notified the police, who arrived just in time to catch the soldier.

SEEK TO ALTER PASSPORT RULE

Efforts to rectify a clause in a pasport regulation which is claimed to be working a hardship on some travelers, and which is unworkable because of the distance of Hawaii from Washington, D. C., are being made by the local U. S. clerk's office.

This regulation is to the effect that a person who has returned to Hawaii from a foreign country, and whose passport has not yet expired, must notify the department of state within five days before returning to another foreign country. The clerk's office holds that this five-day notification would be impossible for the reason that, after the five days had elapsed, a letter of notification would not yet have reached the mainland, let alone Washington, D. C.

For instance, if a Honolulu secured a passport to travel in China and Australia, goes to China and finds that he has to return to Honolulu upon his arrival here he must wait at least six weeks before he can go to Australia on the same passport. should he desire to do this, as his notification and passport must be forward to the department of state.
 As the federal clerk's office points out, it simply works a hardship on travelers whose passports have not yet expired.

 former postmaster of Hilo.

Delegates to the Civic convention from the other islands will be given special bleacher seats for the big Re-tatta on Saturday afternoon. Arrangements made by the Rotary Club provide for special bleachers for the visitors on Pier 2.

Solomon Ahuhui, a crippled Hawaiian, was injured at Iwilei road and King street last night when some one hit him from behind while he was sitting on a stool. The affair was reported to the police, but no arrests were made.

Shuzuki Saito, a small Japanese boy, ran into the rear fender of an automobile driven by W. S. Ito at Beretania and Aala streets late yesterday afternoon. He was treated for a swollen face and a cut lip at the Emergency hospital.

Falling from the ceiling, where he was working on some wires, when one of his life rings broke, W. Freitas was painfully injured late yesterday afternoon in the rear of the Acme Rooming house on Nuuanu street. He was taken to the Emergency hospital.

A wireless from the Nippon Maru to Castle and Cooke states that the vessel will reach Honolulu Thursday morning with 519 tons of cargo for island merchants. This is one day earlier than the ship was expected.
 It is likely she will sail the same day for San Francisco.

There will be a special meeting of Frederick Funston Post, No. 24, United States Veterans of Foreign Wars, this evening. It is urged by the officers that all members and all visiting comrades attend. The meeting will be held in Phoenix hall, beginning at 7:30 o'clock.

A coroner's jury at the inquest on the death of Private Fred C. Dennison, who was killed in a motorcycle accident on August 16, returned a verdict yesterday to the effect that the man had been killed by accident. The motorcycle, which was being ridden by two men collided with a runaway horse which was owned by John Culborn.

MARIAN DECLARED SEAWORTHY SHIP

Lloyd's Survey of Trim Little Schooner Has Been Discontinued

A Lloyd's survey of the schooner Marian, which was started to determine the extent and cause of damage to the vessel on her 22-day voyage from San Francisco to Honolulu has been discontinued. It is reported that the damage was not serious and that the vessel can be made seaworthy by the Marian will remain in port until her work while repairs are made. No alterations are to be made in the amount of sail carried by the little schooner, which rumor said was "too heavy," it is asserted by her agents, Ellis Davies & Co.

The Marian is the trim little schooler which many took for the yacht Lurline when she arrived off port on August 24. She is owned by the Knott-Atkins Co. of San Francisco and is being taken to Zamboanga in the Philippines to be used in the copra trade.

Another vessel of this company is due here in a few days. She is the Scafarer, a yacht which participated in one of the transpacific yacht races to Honolulu a few years ago. She is bound for the same destination and trade as is the Marian.

MONKEYING WITH MONKS GETS HIM IN POLICE CAGE

Monkeying with monkeys—at least, the kind found in parks—is a criminal offense, but just with what the guilty person is to be charged puzzled the police this morning. Arresting Beside Cortez, a Filipino, near one of the cages in Kapiolani park, John Wise, superintendent of the park, in his report, gives his reason as follows:

"The above named defendant and several others were standing in front of the monkey cage when I saw the defendant stick a cigar into the cage.
 I placed him under arrest." Cortez was arraigned in court for violation of Section 4122 R. S., or, in plain English, for being a "common nuisance." Chief of Detectives Arthur McDuffie suggested that the man be charged with incendiarism, but Joe Nobria surmised that the cigar had gone out when it had passed into the cage and that the only other charge possible was for his generally offensive actions.

CHARLIE CHAPLIN IS COMING BACK

For the last time tonight the Hawaii theater will present William S. Hart in "The Patriot," a red-blooded Triangle drama of the present day. Hart is a finished actor, the Triangle Film company a leading concern, and "The Patriot" a strong drama—a combination that has packed the Hotel street theater to the tune of two a night and a matinee during the early half of the current week.

Besides the Triangle feature the Hawaii is presenting a Keystone Komedy entitled "Wald Mad," also a Dur-ton Holmes Travelogue. Keystone are always popular offerings with patrons of the Hawaii and can be relied upon to aid in packing the cozy little theater.

The Hawaii management is celebrating this week, due to the fact that commencing tomorrow, Charlie Chaplin will grace—or disgrace—the bill.
 Chaplin has been a stranger in Hon-olohu for a long time and will be most welcome in "Police," one of his recent releases. Chaplin gets money that sounds like the capital stock of Standard Oil for appearing before the camera, consequently his laughs must also be computed in millions and they generally are.

CLEVER ACTOR AT THE LIBERTY

Neither stage or screen can claim many character actors of the ability of George Beban, and as a result he is one of the best drawing cards appearing in Paramount pictures. The Liberty theater is now presenting George Beban in "The Bond Between," a gripping tale in which this premier actor gives full vent to his versatility and ability. One of the strange features of "The Bond Between" is the fact that Beban therein forswears the impersonation of Italian characters and becomes instead a Frenchman.

No matter what the role Beban can be relied upon to give his audience "value received." He is rightly termed the "Dave Warfield of the Silent Drama," and should prove a close second to that sterling artist.
 It is hardly probable that amongst all the Paramount picture stars, who are so well known at the Liberty, there is another who is more popular or better loved than Beban. He is a sincere worker and polished artisan.

Francis X. Bushman and Beverly Bayne continue prime favorites in their gripping serial, "The Great Secret," now in the ninth chapter.
